

Thanksgiving Rebus

by Abby Sakovich, M.S., CCC-SLP

In 1620, the

(Kin

(King of England) controlled the (Church of England). He wanted all people to go to the same kind of church. A group of people wanted freedom to practice religion the way they wanted. They left their country on a ship called the (Mayflower). After six weeks at sea, this group of people, now called the (Pilgrims), landed at (Plymouth) in the New World. It was December.

The S

(winter) was very long and difficult for the (Pilgrims). They survived with help from (Native Americans) living in the area. In (autumn) of 1621,

the a

(Pilgrims) had been living in the New World for one year, and were very (thankful) for a successful

(harvest). They invited 🧃

(Native Americans)

from the area to share in the (abundance) with a large

(feast). The

o E Pa

(celebration) lasted for three whole days! They most likely ate deer, grapes, and corn. We now call this event the first (Thanksgiving).

Free informational handouts for educators, parents, and students (cont.)

(Thanksgiving) did not become a national holiday until 1863. President

(Abraham Lincoln) declared that the country would celebrate the holiday on the last Thursday in the month of (November). In 1939, President

(Franklii

D. Roosevelt) declared the fourth Thursday of (November) to be

(Thanksgiving). Today, we celebrate very differently than the (Pilgrims) did many years ago. We gather with friends and family, eat turkey, and sometimes watch (football) on television. It is a time to be (thankful) for all the good things we have.

King of England

autumn

Thanksgiving

Church of England

thankful

Abraham Lincoln

Mayflower

harvest

November

Pilgrims

abundance

winter

Plymouth

feast

Franklin D. Roosevelt

Native Americans

celebration

football

Resources:

"The History of the First Thanksgiving" accessed October 18, 2018 from http://historyofmassachusetts.org/the-first-thanksgiving/"What We Really Know About the First Thanksgiving" accessed October 18, 2018 from http://time.com/4577425/thanksgiving-2016-true-story/

For more FREE Handy Handouts®, go to www.handyhandouts.com